CME Guidelines & Exhibit Policies

In compliance with the ACCME Integrity and Independence in Continuing Education, arrangements for commercial exhibits or advertisements cannot influence planning or interfere with the presentation, nor can they be a condition of the provision of commercial support for CME activities.

- Exhibit and other promotional fees shall be separate and distinct from educational grants/commercial support.
- All exhibits must be in a room or area separate from the education and the exhibits will not interfere or in any way compete with the learning experience prior to, during, or immediately after the activity.
- Company representatives must refrain from holding any commercial discussions in the educational meeting room. All promotional activities including interviews, demonstrations, and the distribution of literature or samples must be made within the exhibitor's space. Canvassing or distributing promotional materials outside the exhibitor's rented exhibit space is not permitted.
- Industry representatives may attend the CME activities at the discretion of SCLRC for the direct purpose of the representatives' own education. However, they may not engage in sales or marketing activities while in the classroom.

Seminar Modification or Cancellation

SCLRC reserves the right to modify the course's schedule or program as necessary. SCLRC also reserves the right to cancel this seminar, in which case a full refund of the registration/exhibit fees will be provided. We are unable to refund any travel costs (flight, hotel, etc.) in the case of a program cancellation.

Liability: Neither SCLRC, the Colorado Medical Society, the meeting venue nor any of their representatives shall be responsible for any injury, loss, or damage that may occur to the Exhibitor or its property from any cause whatsoever, prior to, during, or subsequent to the period of the Exhibit except for any injury, loss, or damage to the extent arising from the negligence or willful misconduct of SCLRC, the Colorado Medical Society, the meeting venue or any of their representatives. The Exhibitor agrees to indemnify SCLRC, the Colorado Medical Society, the meeting venue or any of their representatives. The Exhibitor shall not perform any procedures on or provide any services to conference attendees that are either invasive or are customarily performed in a practitioner's office.

Security: The exhibit area will not be locked, and no security guard will be present. Anything you leave in the exhibit area will be left at your own risk. Neither the SCLRC nor the venue will accept liability for any items in the exhibit area at any time.
